Tutoring Experience

With over a decade of tutoring experience, I've worked with students across various curriculums, helping them succeed in IB English, A-Level, and IGCSE English exams. My students have consistently achieved high grades and developed a passion for literature that extends beyond the classroom.

I've had the privilege of working with students from diverse backgrounds, allowing me to tailor my lessons to meet their individual needs. Whether preparing for exams or developing critical thinking skills, I focus on building a strong foundation in English, ensuring my students are confident and articulate in their studies.

My background in English literature, combined with my PGCE qualification, has enabled me to provide students with unique insights into complex texts and foster a love for the subject. I'm passionate about guiding students through their learning journey and helping them achieve their academic goals.
